

English/Language Arts • Unpacked Content

For the new Common Core State Standards that will be effective in all North Carolina schools in the 2012-13 school year

This document is designed to help North Carolina educators teach the ELA Common Core State Standards.

NCDPI staff are continually updating and improving these tools to better serve teachers.

What is the purpose of this document?

To increase student achievement by ensuring educators understand specifically what the new standards mean a student must know, understand and be able to do.

What is in the document?

Descriptions of what each standard means a student will know, understand and be able to do. The "unpacking" of the standards done in this document is an effort to answer a simple question "What does this standard mean that a student must know and be able to do?" and to ensure the description is helpful, specific and comprehensive for educators.

How do I send Feedback?

We intend the explanations and examples in this document to be helpful and specific. That said, we believe that as this document is used, teachers and educators will find ways in which the unpacking can be improved and made ever more useful. Please send feedback to us at feedback@dpi.state.nc.us and we will use your input to refine our unpacking of the standards. Thank You!

Just want the standards alone?

You can find the standards alone at http://www.corestandards.org

| CCR ANCHOR STANDARD | CCSS STANDARD | UNPACKING |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Reading | Reading Literature | |
| | Key Ideas and Details | |
| 1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text. | 1. Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text. | Fourth grade students should refer to the text when drawing conclusions as well as when answering directly stated questions. The central message or lesson is now referred to as theme (a unifying idea that is a recurrent element in literary or artistic |
| 2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas. | 2. Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text. | work). Students are continuing to determine a theme and expanding this work to other genres. They are required to refer to the text to describe various story |
| 3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text. | 3. Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character"s thoughts, words, or actions). | elements. Use questions and prompts such as: |
| | | Can you tell me the reasons why the character saidin the story? Show me where you linked your thinking to the text. |
| | | What are the most important events that happened in the story? How do you know? |
| | | What is the theme of this text? Summarize the story from beginning to end in a few sentences. |
| | | Can you tell me how the character is feeling is this part of the story? Explain why the character is feeling this way |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Reading | Reading Literature | |
| | Craft and Structure | |
| 4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone. 5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, | 4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including those that allude to significant characters found in mythology (e.g., Herculean). 5. Explain major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, | Students will continue to tell the meaning of words and phrases in a text and focus specifically on mythological characters. Students must tell the differences between poems, drama, and prose using structural elements to create an oral or written response to a text. Students will find the similarities and differences in the narration |
| chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole. | rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text. | between a story written in first person and a story written in third person point of view. |
| 6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text. | 6. Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations. | Use questions and prompts such as: What do you do when you come to words or phrases you do not know? (use context) Can you tell me what is different about these kinds of texts? What is the same? Think about what you read. Who is telling the story? Think about what you read. Do you agree with the way the characters are |
| | | thinking in this story? Do you agree with the way the narrator is thinking in this story? How is your thinking the same or different? |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor | Reading Literature | |
| Standards for Reading | Integration of Knowledge and Ideas | |
| 7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.1 8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence. 9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take. | 7. Make connections between the text of a story or drama and a visual or oral presentation of the text, identifying where each version reflects specific descriptions and directions in the text. 8. (Not applicable to literature) 9. Compare and contrast the treatment of similar themes and topics (e.g., opposition of good and evil) and patterns of events (e.g., the quest) in stories, myths, and traditional literature from different cultures. | Students at this level must link the reading of the text in a story to listening or viewing the same story. They will make connections by comparing what they read to what they visualized and heard. Students will find similarities and differences in themes, topics, and patterns of events among culturally diverse stories, myths, and traditional literature. Use questions and prompts such as: What is the same about how the story is presented visually (illustrations) and in writing? What is different? What happened to the characters that is the same? What happened that is different? How did characters solve problems in different ways across texts? How are the plots the same or different across texts? |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor | Reading Literature | | | |
| Standards for Reading | | | | |
| | ange of Reading and Level of Text Complex | | | |
| 10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently. | 10. By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poetry, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. | Fourth grade students are capable of reading and understanding a variety of literature in grades 4-5 with assistance provided at the higher end. "The Reading standards place equal emphasis on the sophistication of what students read and the skill with which they read. Standard 10 defines a grade-by-grade "staircase" of increasing text complexity that rises from beginning reading to the college and career readiness level. Whatever they are reading, students must also show a steadily growing ability to discern more from and make fuller use of text including making an increasing number of connections among ideas and between texts, considering a wider range of textual evidence, and becoming more sensitive to inconsistencies, ambiguities, and poor reasoning in texts." "Students also acquire the habits of reading independently and closely, which are essential to their future success." | | |

| Students should encounter appropriately |
|------------------------------------------------|
| complex texts at each grade level in order |
| to develop the mature language skills and |
| the conceptual knowledge needed for |
| success in school and life. |
| Effective scaffolding should allow the |
| reader to encounter the text with minimal |
| clarifications. It should not replace the text |
| by translating its contents for students. |

| ng Informational Texty Ideas and Detailsy Ideas and Detailsetails and examples in a texting what the text saysI when drawing inferencestext and drawing conditioned | packing nts are required to refer es when explaining the |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| tails and examples in a textFourth grade studering what the text saysto specific exampleI when drawing inferencestext and drawing content | es when explaining the |
| ing what the text says I when drawing inferences text and drawing co | es when explaining the |
| most important deta main idea. They mu | onclusions. Students nain idea and find the ails that strengthen the ust also explain the text |
| it is supported by key details; tell how or why his ideas or "how to" p | At this level, students storical events, scientific procedures happened support their answers. |
| ents, procedures, ideas, or historical, scientific, or , including what happened ed on specific information in What is the main do you know? What are the im text? Show whe the text. Summarize the end in a few sen Which step con What happened after that? Can you tell me same? Can you different? | prompts such as: in idea of this text? How nportant ideas in this ere you found them in text from beginning to |
| | main idea. They mu in their own words. tell how or why his ideas or "how to" p and use the text to s ents, procedures, ideas, or historical, scientific, or t, including what happened ed on specific information in What is the main do you know? What are the int text? Show what the text. Summarize the end in a few sen Which step con What happened after that? Can you tell me same? Can you different? |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Reading | Reading Informational Text | |
| | Craft and Structure | |
| 4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in a text, including determining technical, connotative, and figurative meanings, and analyze how specific word choices shape meaning or tone. 5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole. 6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text. | 4. Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words or phrases in a text relevant to a grade 4 topic or subject area. 5. Describe the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in a text or part of a text. 6. Compare and contrast a firsthand and secondhand account of the same event or topic; describe the differences in focus and the information provided. | Fourth grade students continue to find the meanings of general vocabulary words specific to fourth grade topics or subjects. Students must explain how the events, ideas, or concepts fit into the overall structure of a text. At this level, students are required to find the similarities and differences in perspectives (first and second hand) about the same event or subject. They will give descriptions about how the information is presented for each perspective. Use questions and prompts such as: What do you do when you come to words you do not know? (glossary, use context) What features in the text help you find important information about what you are reading? How is the information presented/organized in this text? What does the author want the reader to understand about this text? What is the author emphasizing mostly in the firsthand account? What is the author emphasizing in the secondhand account? |

| | Is the information provided by the author the same or different? |
|--|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Reading | Reading Informational Text | |
| | Integration of Knowledge and Ideas | |
| 7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.1 | 7. Interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears. | Fourth grade students must understand what is heard, viewed, or presented through various media formats to help make meaning of the text. Students give an explanation about how an author uses proof to support a point in the text. At this level, students will combine information |
| 8. Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence. | 8. Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text. | from two texts about the same subject in a written or oral response that demonstrates knowledge of the subject. |
| 9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take. | 9. Integrate information from two texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably. | Use questions and prompts such as: How does the diagram/image help you understand what you are reading? Can you find the reasons the author gives for his/her thinking? What is the same about the points presented in these texts? What is different? Look at these two texts about the same topic. Can you find the important |
| | | information from both texts to add to your notes? Can you tell me about the important ideas you found in each text? |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor | Reading Informational Text | | |
| Standards for Reading | | | |
| | Range of Reading and Level of Text Complexity | | |
| 10. Read and comprehend complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently. | 10. By the end of year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. | Students are required to read and understand a wide range of informational texts within the fourth to fifth grade text level efficiently, with assistance as needed at the higher end, by the end of the year. "The Reading standards place equal emphasis on the sophistication of what students read and the skill with which they read. Standard 10 defines a grade-by-grade "staircase" of increasing text complexity that rises from beginning reading to the college and career readiness level. Whatever they are reading, students must also show a steadily growing ability to discern more from and make fuller use of text including making an increasing number of connections among ideas and between texts, considering a wider range of textual evidence, and becoming more sensitive to inconsistencies, ambiguities, and poor reasoning in texts." "Students also acquire the habits of reading independently and closely, which are essential to their future success." | |

| Students should encounter appropriately |
|------------------------------------------------|
| complex texts at each grade level in order |
| to develop the mature language skills and |
| the conceptual knowledge needed for |
| success in school and life. |
| Effective scaffolding should allow the |
| reader to encounter the text with minimal |
| clarifications. It should not replace the text |
| by translating its contents for students. |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| There are no Anchor Standards for Reading Foundational Skills | Reading Foundational Skills | |
| | Phonics and Word Recognition | |
| | 3. Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words. a. Use combined knowledge of all letter- sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology (e.g., roots and affixes) to read accurately unfamiliar multisyllabic words in context and out of context. | Students continue learning specific strategies for decoding words in texts. They are required to apply the specific strategies for decoding and spelling multi- syllabic words. Use questions and prompts such as: Does that sound right? Does that look right? Does that make sense? Look at the word, does it look like? You saiddoes it look like? |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| There are no Anchor Standards for Reading Foundational Skills | Reading Foundational Skills | |
| | Fluency | |
| | 4. Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension. a. Read grade-level text with purpose and understanding. b. Read grade-level prose and poetry orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression. c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary. | Fluency helps the reader process language for meaning and enjoyment. Fluent readers are able to focus attention on the meaning of the text. Readers at this stage reread texts as needed to support understanding. Use questions and prompts such as: Make your reading sound like the characters are talking. Go back and reread when it doesn"t sound or look like you think it should. |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Writing | Writing | |
| | Text Types and Purposes | |
| 1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. | Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information. a. Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer"s purpose. Provide reasons that are supported by facts and details. c. Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition). Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented. | Fourth grade students should write opinion pieces that clearly state their preferences and supply the reasoning for their thinking. In doing so, students need to understand how their reasoning supports their opinion, search and find facts to support their viewpoint, and share this thinking. Students also build their argument by linking their ideas together. At this level, students are using a variety of sentence structures and more complex sentences. They are developing the use of more complex linking phrases like (for instance, in order to, in addition). Students need to engage in behaviors (turn and talk, small group discussion, and |
| 2. Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. | Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly. a. Introduce a topic clearly and group related information in paragraphs and sections; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. b. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and | numerous writing and speaking activities) that lead to the expression of ideas both verbally and in writing. Students will also need a purposeful focus on choice-making throughout ELA. For example, fourth grade students need to be able to choose precise vocabulary in their writing that clarifies their thinking about a topic. Fourth grade students are required to |

| | 1 1 4 1 4 4 | · 1 1 1 /1 · / 1 /· 1 |
|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| | examples related to the topic. | include both an introduction and a |
| | c. Link ideas within categories of | concluding statement or section in their |
| | information using words and phrases | writing. Students need to use strategies for |
| | (e.g., another, for example, also, | introducing concepts (such as beginning |
| | because). | with a fact, dialogue, or question about the |
| | d. Use precise language and domain- | topic) and concluding their thoughts (using |
| | specific vocabulary to inform about or | summary statements) when writing. They |
| | explain the topic. | are learning to further organize their |
| | e. Provide a concluding statement or | writing by developing the use of text |
| | section related to the information or | features (headings, sections, illustrations, |
| | explanation presented. | and multimedia). Students also write with |
| 3. Write narratives to develop real or | 3. Write narratives to develop real or | complex sentences to link the parts of their |
| imagined experiences or events using | imagined experiences or events using | writing together. |
| effective technique, well-chosen details, | effective technique, descriptive details, and | Fourth grade students write informative/ |
| and well-structured event sequences. | clear event sequences. | explanatory pieces. They must be able to |
| | a. Orient the reader by establishing a | find and group information together in a |
| | situation and introducing a narrator | logical way. In order to do so, students |
| | and/or characters; organize an event | need strategies for researching a topic |
| | sequence that unfolds naturally. | (gathering data), selecting relevant |
| | b. Use dialogue and description to | information (note taking), grouping like |
| | develop experiences and events or | ideas, and developing a way to present the |
| | 1 1 | ideas from beginning to end (format and |
| | show the responses of characters to situations. | organization of written presentation). |
| | | e |
| | c. Use a variety of transitional words and | Fourth grade students write real and |
| | phrases to manage the sequence of | imaginative stories and students are |
| | events. | expected to use description to show |
| | d. Use concrete words and phrases and | characters" thoughts and feelings as well as |
| | sensory details to convey experiences | the details of characters" interactions |
| | and events precisely. | through dialogue. As students develop |
| | e. Provide a conclusion that follows from | characters and use dialogue, they will need |
| | the narrated experiences or events. | to understand how to introduce characters |
| | | and how to engage characters in |
| | | conversation in their writing. |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Writing | Writing | |
| | Production and Distribution of Writing | |
| 4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. | 4. Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.) | Fourth grade students are expected to produce writing that is clear and understandable to the reader. Task (type of writing assignment) and purpose (the writer''s designated reason for writing) should be reflected in the student''s |
| 5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach. | 5. With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing. | organization and development of a topic. With assistance from adults and peers, students should develop revising and |
| 6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others. | 6. With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of one page in a single sitting. | editing skills. In order to do so, students need to understand how to change word choice and sentence structure in their writing to strengthen their piece. They need assistance with planning for writing using graphic organizers (story frames, story mountains, story maps). They also need to develop the ability to recognize spelling, grammar, and punctuation errors and have strategies for correcting these errors with assistance (conferences, check sheets, peer editing). |
| | | Students in fourth grade are developing strategies with peers and adults to use digital tools. At this grade level, they should not only use technology for producing and publishing writing, but also |

| | to collaborate with others. Fourth grade students are required to be proficient in keyboarding skills (typing at least one page in a single setting). |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Writing | Writing | |
| | Research to Build and Present Knowledge | |
| 7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects based on focused questions, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation. 8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism. 9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. | 7. Conduct short research projects that build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic. 8. Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources. 9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. Apply grade 4 Reading standards to literature (e.g., "Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text [e.g., a character"s thoughts, words, or actions]."). Apply grade 4 Reading standards to informational texts (e.g., "Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text"). | Fourth grade students are required to research a topic through investigation. Investigation includes exploring a topic in greater detail by developing a research question that helps bring focus to the topic. Students learn how to locate information from print and digital sources as well as integrate information from their own experiences. They take notes and organize their information into categories and list the sources they used. Fourth grade students use strategies for reading literary and information text as they investigate topics. When reading literary texts, fourth grade students have to refer to the text when drawing conclusions as well as when answering directly stated questions. The central message or lesson is now referred to as theme (a unifying idea that is a recurrent element in literary or artistic work). Students continue to determine a theme and expand this work to other genres. They are required to refer to the text to describe various story elements. |

| | When reading informational texts, fourth grade students must understand what is heard, viewed, or presented through various media formats to help make meaning of the text. Students give an explanation about how an author uses proof to support a point in the text. At this level, students will combine information from two texts about the same subject in a written or oral response that demonstrates knowledge of the subject. |
|--|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| | |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor | Writing | |
| Standards for Writing | | |
| | Range of Writing | |
| 10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences. | 10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences. | Students are required to produce numerous pieces of writing over various time frames to develop skills in research and allow time for reflection and revision. Task (type of writing assignment), audience (the intended reader), and purpose (the writer"s designated reason for writing) should be reflected in the student"s development of a topic related to the content area for which they are writing about. |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Speaking and Listening | Speaking and Listening | |
| | Comprehension and Collaboration | |
| 1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others" ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. | Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 4 topics and texts, building on others" ideas and expressing their own clearly. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles. Pose and respond to specific questions to clarify or follow up on information, and make comments that contribute to the discussion and link to the remarks of others. Review the key ideas expressed and explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion. | Students in grade four will engage in conversations about grade-appropriate topics and texts. In order to do so, students will need ample opportunities to take part in a variety of rich, structured conversations. Students actively engage as part of a whole class, in small groups, and with a partner, sharing the roles of participant, leader, and observer. Students at this level should engage in collaborative conversations (such as book groups, literature circles, buddy reading), and develop skills in active (close) listening and group discussion (looking at the speaker, turn taking, linking ideas to the speakers" idea, sharing the floor, etc). Fourth grade students will also paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in multiple formats. |
| 2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, | 2. Paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media | support points. This can be done through listening, questioning, and gathering |
| including visually, quantitatively, and | and formats, including visually, | information for a deeper understanding of |
| orally. | quantitatively, and orally. | a topic. |

| 3. Evaluate a speaker"s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric. | 3. Identify the reasons and evidence a speaker provides to support particular points | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| | | |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor | Speaking and Listening | |
| Standards for Speaking and Listening | | |
| | Presentation of Knowledge and Ideas | |
| 4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. 5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations. 6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate. | 4. Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience in an organized manner, using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace. 5. Add audio recordings and visual displays to presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes. 6. Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion); use formal English when appropriate to task and situation. | While adept at reporting on a topic or text, telling a story, or recounting an event, fourth graders will focus on doing so in an organized, logical manner. The aforementioned items should be done orally and in coherent, spoken sentences. Fourth graders will do so at an appropriate pace. Attention to details to support main ideas or themes is important in fourth grade. Students in the fourth grade will combine audio recordings and visual displays, when appropriate, to enhance the development of main ideas or themes. Students in the fourth grade should be exposed to a numerous variety of speaking tasks so they will be able to distinguish between formal and informal discourse. Small-group discussions and formal presentations would be one example of each type of discourse. |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language | Language | |
| | Conventions of Standard English | |
| 1. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. | Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. a. Use relative pronouns (who, whose, whom, which, that) and relative adverbs (where, when, why). b. Form and use the progressive (e.g., I was walking; I am walking; I will be walking) verb tenses. c. Use modal auxiliaries (e.g., can, may, must) to convey various conditions. d. Order adjectives within sentences according to conventional patterns (e.g., a small red bag rather than a red small bag). e. Form and use prepositional phrases. f. Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.* g. Correctly use frequently confused | An understanding of language is essential for effective communication. "The inclusion of Language standards in their own strand should not be taken as an indication that skills related to conventions, knowledge of language, and vocabulary are unimportant to reading, writing, speaking, listening, and viewing; indeed, they are inseparable from such contexts." Fourth grade student must have a command of the grammar and usage of spoken and written standard English. Standards that are related to conventions are appropriate to formal spoken English as they are to formal written English. At this level, emphasis expands to include relative pronouns and adverbs, progressive |
| 2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. | words (e.g., to, too, two; there, their).* 2. Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. a. Use correct capitalization. b. Use commas and quotation marks to | verb tenses, prepositional phrases, and more complex, complete sentences. With conventions, students are adept at ending punctuation, comma usage, and appropriate use of capitalization. Students at this level are spelling grade level words appropriately and consulting reference |

| mark direct speech and q a text. c. Use a comma before a co conjunction in a compou d. Spell grade-appropriate v correctly, consulting referenceded. | und sentence. words |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language | Language | |
| | Knowledge of Language | |
| 3. Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening. | Knowledge of Language 3. Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening. a. Choose words and phrases to convey ideas precisely.* b. Choose punctuation for effect.* c. Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion). | Students in grade 4 will use what they know about HOW language works when they write, speak, read, and listen. Students at this level will develop strategies to convey ideas and highlight effect. They will be able to choose between situations calling for informal versus formal English language discourse. In order to do so, students will need strategies for reading across various authors and genres to compare writing styles and effects of language usage. |
| | | |

| CCR Anchor Standard | CCSS Standard | Unpacking |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| College and Career Readiness Anchor Standards for Language | Language | |
| | Vocabulary Acquisition and Use | |
| 4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases by using context clues, analyzing meaningful word parts, and consulting general and specialized reference materials, as appropriate. | 4. Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grade 4 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. a. Use context (e.g., definitions, examples, or restatements in text) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. b. Use common, grade-appropriate Greek and Latin affixes and roots as clues to the meaning of a word (e.g., telegraph, photograph, autograph). c. Consult reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation and determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases. | The overall focus of language learning in regards to vocabulary acquisition is to guide students as they make purposeful language choices in writing and speaking in order to communicate effectively in a wide range of print and digital texts. Students need to understand the diversity in standard English and the ways authors use formal and informal voice (dialects, registers) to craft their message for specific purposes. Students also need strategies for learning to make these kinds of choices for themselves as they write and speak in different contexts and for different purposes. Learning words at this stage includes exploring the meaning of simple similes, metaphors, idioms, adages, and proverbs; |
| 5. Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings. | 5. Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. a. Explain the meaning of simple similes and metaphors (e.g., as pretty as a picture) in context. b. Recognize and explain the meaning of common idioms, adages, and proverbs. c. Demonstrate understanding of words | demonstrating understanding of relationships between words (synonyms and antonyms); growing vocabulary by using known word parts (Greek and Latin affix and root) to acquire unknown words; and developing print and digital reference use (glossary, dictionary, and thesaurus). |

| 6. Acquire and use accurately a range of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when encountering an unknown term important to comprehension or expression. | by relating them to their opposites (antonyms) and to words with similar but not identical meanings (synonyms). 6. Acquire and use accurately grade- appropriate general academic and domain- specific words and phrases, including those that signal precise actions, emotions, or states of being (e.g., quizzed, whined, stammered) and that are basic to a particular topic (e.g., wildlife , conservation , and endangered when discussing animal preservation). | "Tier One words are the words of everyday speech usually learned in the early grades, albeit not at the same rate by all children." "General academic vocabulary (Tier 2) words appear in all sorts of texts; informational, technical texts, and literary texts." "Domain-specific vocabulary (Tier 3) words are specific to a domain or field of study and key to understanding a new concept within a text. Because of their specificity and close ties to content knowledge, Tier Three words are far more common in informational texts than in literature." |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|